

Discover Western Canada with Timberwolf Active Tours

www.timberwolftours.com

For the summer months, June through September, Timberwolf Tours is looking for guides to join our team. Timberwolf guides are knowledgeable, organized, safety conscious, and environmentally responsible. The team is full of energetic, fun-loving guides who ensure all the guests have an exceptional travel experience. The guides strive to exceed expectations.

While leading multi day trips in Western Canada guides are responsible for groups of up to twelve people, driving the van, leading day hikes, organizing meal preparation, keeping meticulous records, and maintaining daily scheduling. Guides with specialty skills may lead multi day canoe trips, or helicopter assisted hikes.

The minimum requirements for the job are; first aid, class 4 drivers license, IGA standard interpreter, and the ability to speak German, French and/or Spanish. Leadership experience and previous outdoor pursuits in the Rockies, British Columbia or the Yukon are an asset. In-house training will add to each guide's skill set and competence.

Timberwolf Tours offers continuous support from beginning to end of each trip including; meal plans, detailed daily schedules, record keeping forms, Timberwolf handbook and twenty-four hour phone support combined with a team of guides and preseason training. Meals and accommodation while on tour and accommodation between trips is supplied. Competitive daily wages increase substantially depending on experience and qualifications.

Contact Corinna Kuhnert at Timberwolf Tours to apply for this position. Submit a short resume which highlights your outdoor and leadership experience, relevant training and job experience to corinna@timberwolftours.com or toll free fax 1-866-339-3960.
